

THIS CONTAINER in collaboration with thecarrierbag festival

THIS CONTAINER collaborates with thecarrierbag festival through putting documentations, thoughts, speculations, imaginations and scores next to each other. It co-exists, circludes, carries, contains and collaborates by contrasting, contextualizing and caring for thecarrierbag festival. This container holds and embraces the carrierbag, which holds many other wonderful things which most likely embraces other things, its endless, its beautiful!

During the day (3rd of December at Köttinspektionen in Uppsala) a new edition of THIS CONTAINER will be released, and eariler editions presented and made available. For the freshest zine, Emilia Gasiorek and Sandra Liaklev Andersson will be guest editors and work next to the editors in chief of THIS CONTAINER: Chloe Chignell, Ellen Söderhult and Maia Means
